

To All Hon'ble Members of BGMEA

Dear Sir,

This is to inform all valued members of BGMEA that a proposal has been received from an international legal and financial advisory firm expressing its interest in providing certain support services to BGMEA members in relation to tariff refund matters and global trade risk management.

In this regard, the firm has indicated that BGMEA members may, at their own discretion, consider availing the following support services:

1. IEEPA Tariff Refund Support:

- Assistance in processing and expediting refund claims related to tariffs imposed under the IEEPA statute by the United States.
- Facilitation of access to a portion of potential refundable claims within a shorter timeframe, subject to applicable terms and conditions.
- Option to assign or transfer tariff-related claims, based on mutually agreed commercial arrangements.

2. Business Protection & Safeguard Support:

- Advisory and support in handling certain international trade-related risks, including matters involving U.S. buyers.
- Assistance in addressing payment delays, disputed or frozen receivables, and distressed buyer situations.
- Support in relation to legal proceedings in the United States, including bankruptcy matters (e.g., Chapter 11), through appropriate legal channels.
- Advisory services aimed at risk mitigation in open account trading and international transactions.
- Guidance on contractual structuring and dispute resolution mechanisms.

Members who are interested in exploring such services may directly communicate with:
